DEDICATION

The Seniors of 1949 wish to dedicate this volume of the ACE to the Faculty.

To Mr. Frederick: for his guidance and keen sense of humor.

To Miss Taylor: for her long years of service to the school.

To Miss Gfeller: for the good "ole touch" system.

To Mrs. Arney: for her "long sermons."

To Mr. Libey: for his boys' leadership.

To Mrs. Fee: for her girls' leadership.

To Mrs. Soudah: for the band.

To Mr. Everitt: for his sportsmanship.

To Mr. Fee: for his aid in science and mathematics.

CLASS HISTORY

A noisy but nervous gang of forty-nine wide-eyed Freshmen assembled in the Assembly on September 5, 1945. It was the largest class, even taking up some of the Sophomores' seats. We seemed to get along all right in registering and assignments. After we became acquainted with good old Ashley High and the faculty our Freshman year proved to be a busy one. Miss Cook became our class sponsor and the elected officers were: Dick Harmes, President; Ruth Ann Hoffelder, Vice-President; Troas Orwig, Secretary; Bill Wilson, Reporter. There were two parties that year, one a great hay ride with two tractor-drawn wagons to the farm of our sponsor's father at Garrett. Who could forget the wieners? The second class party was held at the Community Building at Fairfield Center with games and food for all. In March Herman Lehman from Kendallville joined us and Marilyn Deetz moved to Huntertown. April found our Freshman work finished and us eager for vacation.

In the following September we began our Sophomore year with three new students; Margaret Redmon, Helen Stout, June Hart. Helen Altimus, Maxine Carroll, Robert Farver, Faye Franze, Pauline Royer, Paul Stoy, Nelda Strauser and Juanita Voges had not come back to join us. Dolly Arney was our sponsor and elected officers were: Dean Stoy, President; Fred Rose, Vice-President; Clarice Whysong, Secretary; Bill Wilson, Reporter. Two exciting parties were held that year. The first was a skating party at Silver Moon. We had a large group and were refunded some money to begin the funds for our Junior and Senior Trip. The second party was a picnic supper at Pokagon. A treasure hunt lead us all over the park and ended up at the animal pens. A softball game, girls against the boys, proved the boys to be the winners. The evening grew cool and we were glad to have our picnic supper close to a fireplace. The cold early spring wind nipped at everyone. After we cleared things away, we left for a show at Angola. Some of the class was to be found in each theater.

In January three students, June Hart, Harley Pankop, and Jean Smith left us and in February James Hovarter decided to discontinue his work.

This was the most important year for us because we ordered and received our class rings and sweaters. We also chose our class color, blue and white, and class flower, the American Beauty Rose. We were honored by having in our class that year the queen of Ashley High, Troas Orwig. The school year ended with a party for the whole high school at Hamilton Lake.

We returned in the fall, beaming with pride and big plans to be as busy as little beavers! Right away we chose our old stand-by, Dolly, as class sponsor and the elected officers were: Fred Rose, President; Mona June Strite, Vice-President; Ruth Ann Hoffelder, Secretary; Joann Miller, Treasurer; and Bill Wilson, Reporter. Before the year had hardly started, we were working and planning on the Junior play,

"The Adorable Imp." It was ready by November and the cast that gave it so well were: Joyce Leply, Mona June Strite, Margaret Redmon, Ruth Kreischer, Elaine Lehmar, Ruth Ann Hoffelder, Fred Rose, John Wilhelm, Dean Stoy, John Miller, and Bill Wilson.

We were busily engaged in selling ice cream and candy at school and at games. Then we added a new pencil dispenser, so everyone could have a new pencil to use and we could make money for our Junior and Senior trip to Chicago.

On a bright morning in May, sixty excited Juniors and Seniors proceeded on their trip to Chicago. We went sight-seeing and visited many interesting places of importance. After numerous little mishaps and much fun, we arrived home all tired and ready for sleep.

In January, Bill Prather joined us from Kansas and in March we lost Floyd and Loyd Becker to Salem. We had only one party that year which was a potluck Christmas Party. At the end of the term we lost Elaine Lehmar who moved to Portland, Oregon and Bill Prather went back to Kansas.

Our Senior year opened with four classmates displaying diamonds: Phyllis Chrisman, Berdena Wiler, Ruth Kreischer, and Beverly Deetz. The class had a noted air of distinction about them. Our first class meeting ended with Dean Stoy, President; Dick Harmes, Vice-President; Mona June Strite, Secretary; Joann Miller, Treasurer; Bill Wilson, Reporter; Mr. Frederick, our sponsor.

Paul Conrad from Hamilton High and Louise Becker from Kendallville joined our class. Soon, however, Harold Jacobs, Louise Becker, and Ruth Kreischer discontinued their work. Our Senior pictures were taken before Christmas and we chose our Motto; "Not at the Top, but Climbing." Our class has been active in many activities in all four years and has been very successful and happy group.

As the annual goes to press, there are thirty-two students left in our class to carry through the tradition of the Junior-Senior Banquet or Trip, Class Night, Baccalaureate, and the. . . graduation!

PROPHECY

It is the year of 1959. From the corridor of the Ashley Memorial Hospital two nurses, Barbara Sanders and Katrina Prosser, step into the dimly lit waiting room where Rita Ellert is sitting patiently waiting for her husband, Dr. Robert Mee. The three girls sit down and start talking. They soon wander onto the subject of their old classmates.

Barbara: I wonder what happened to Frank Kessler?

Rita: Why, he is now head of the U.S.S. Steel Corporation. And do you remember Troas Orwig? After all these years, she has finally decided to marry him.

Katrina: Do you remember Ruth Anne Hoffelder and Joan Miller? They are now running a boarding house just for bachelors.

Barbara; Speaking of running boarding houses, Ned Sanders and Berdena Wiler probably think they are running a boarding house too. You should see all the little blonde boarders.

Rita: Do you remember my girl-friend, Joan Days, whose long ambition was to travel? She has finally fulfilled her wish. She is now stewardess for the Hurd's Airline Inc.

Katrina: She sure is lucky, but do you remember Violet Gipple? She is working as a stand-in for Judy Garland.

Barbara: That cute Clarice Whysong's looks have surely paid off. She is now a famous model for the Paris Beauty Salon of Ashley.

Rita: The Salon is under the ownership of the exquisite blonde Crystal Shipe.

Katrina: Did you know Mona June Strite and Beverly Deetz are now co-owners of the Ashley S & D Bait Factory?

Barbara: I think Dean Stoy as outdone us all; he is now an English teacher at North Side in Fort Wayne.

Rita: Speaking of teachers, Helen Newcomer is now head of the Home Economics Department of Ashley High School.

Katrina: Phyllis Snyder is head of the Latin Department.

Barbara: I still remember Philip Ellert and his girlfriend, Margaret Redmon. I wonder what ever happened to them?

Rita: Philip is still at home waiting for Margaret, who is now Superintendent of Nurses at St. Joseph Hospital in Fort Wayne.

Katrina: Bill Wilson, our class Casanova, is now on Station A-S-H-L-E-Y-F-M as a national joker. He became a Bob Hope; his co-star is Joan Ellert, alias Chicken, who imitates that famous comic character, Donald Duck.

Barbara: Dean Paulen, veteran windsock of the Ashley Class, is still up in the air. He 's Admiral Paulen now, commander of the aircraft carrier U.S.S. Windy Pass.

Rita: Did you know that Joyce Lepley is an old maid and still Dodging around?

Katrina: Do you recall our high school play-boy Larry Stomm. Well, he is fixed fine, now. He turned out to be a real for sure scientist.

Barbara: Paul Conrad used to say he was going to be another Frank Sinatra. Well, he is singing lullabies to his children.

Rita: Did Phyllis Chrisman marry Marion Baker?

Katrina: Yes, and they now own the Ashley Baking Co. which bakes all the supplies for Rexall Drug Store where Marcella Hammon is working as a jerk, a soda that is.

Barbara: Freddie sure is in dead business, for he is now the friendly undertaker.

Rita: Did you say dead business? That's Johnny Wilhelm's work; he keeps the farmers buying new stock for he is now the veterinarian for all farmers out of Ashley.

Katrina: Dick Harme's high school athletics have sure paid off: he is now coach of the Zollner Pistons.

Barbara: I suppose you knew that Helen Stout finally married that soldier boy and they are now raising their own army.

Rita: That "little" Peggy Kissinger gave her first art exhibit in Chicago this year.

Katrina: I wonder if she married that short boy friend of hers?

Barbara: Oh, she probably left him to marry some interesting art fellow in Chicago.

Rita: Here comes Bob, I'll have to leave now.

Katrina: I'll have to hurry home to get Paul's supper.

Barbara: It was fun remembering old classmates, but I'll have to go home now, because Jack is going to take me out for supper.

WILL

We, the Class of '49 of Ashley High School, situated in the city of Ashley in the County of DeKalb in the State of Indiana, being in an unusually sound state of mind and memory, do make, publish and declare this our last will and testament, leaving our cherished possessions which we have accumulated during our four years of high school to the under-classmen and faculty.

We will to Mr. Frederick, our principal, the extreme pleasure of saying "so long" to the most ambitious class he has had to deal with in years.

To our Math instructors, we will all unfinished algebra and geometry problems.

To our English instructors, we will our excess knowledge of English which we shall not need.

To our history instructor, we will all important dates and ordinances which we mastered, without a doubt.

To our Agriculture instructor, we will all the shop tools we have so carefully broken and ruined.

To our Home Economics instructor, we will all the food we couldn't stand to eat.

To our Music instructor, we will all miscellaneous instruments used for noise making in the assembly.

To the Juniors, we will our books and pencils with hopes that they will use them more than we did.

To the Sophomores, we will our Senior dignity.

The Senior girls will our powder puffs to the Freshman girls and Senior boys will their ability to get along with Mrs. Soudah to the Freshman boys.

To the Janitor, we will all the waste paper around our desks.

In addition to these bequests we wish to dispose of some of our more personal items as follows:

I, Phyllis Ann Chrisman, will my good humor to Shirley Sherwood.

I, Paul Conrad, will my "Chevvy" to any one who will pay for the repair bills.

I, Joan Days, will my quietness to Johnny Miller.

I, Beverly Deetz, will my ability to skip school to whoever thinks he can get away with it.

I, Jo Ann Ellert, will my Donald Duck voice to Helen Stomm.

I, Philip Ellert, will my last name to Margaret Redmon.

I, Rita Ellert, will my job at Gardners to any one who wants to get rich quick.

I, Violet Gipple, will my dimples to Betty Manning.

I, Marcella Hamman, will my ability to be a soda "jerk" to Carl Stout.

I, Richard Harmes, will my butch hair cut to Gene Miller.

I, Ruth Ann Hoffelder, will my ability to be Mr. Frederick's office girl to Helen Stults.

I, Frank Kessler, will my quiet ways to Jane Stoy.

I, Peggy Kissinger, will my ability to get short men to Betty Ann McClish.

I, Joyce Lepley, will my address book to no one because I still need it.

I, Joann Miller, will my best friend, Ruth Ann, to some good looking, eligible, young bachelor.

I, Helen Newcomer, will my English papers to Bobby Weirich.

I, Troas Orwig, will my ability to get A's in conduct and get away with it to Harold Arney.

I, Dean Paulen, will my basketball satchel to Dolly Arney for a purse.

I, Katrina Prosser, will Paul Stoy to no one.

I, Margaret Redmon, will my good grades to Jerome Ellert.

I, Fred Rose, will my ability to play pin ball machines to Carl Dilly.

I, Barbara Sanders, will my love of Parsell's orchard to any one whose parents will let them stay out until 3:00 A. M.

I, Crystal Shipe, will my ability to play the clarinet to Corky Conrad.

I, Phyllis Snyder, will my cuds of gum under my desk to the person who sits there next year.

I, Larry Stomm, will my gift of gab to Pearl Kessler.

I, Helen Stout, will my ability to lie in bed until the last minute to Miss Taylor.

I, Dean Stoy, will my ability to raise blue ribbon steers to Bobby Schweitzer.

I, Mona June Strite, will my interest in Physical Education to some of the Freshman girls who always have the toe aches, head aches and stomach aches.

I, Clarice Whysong, will my long curly hair to Harold Buchs.

I, Berdina Wiler, will my bottle of hair bleach to Billy Lee Chrisman.

I, John Wilhelm, will my ability to act the part of Tarzen to Ronnie Parker.

I, Bill Wilson, will my Casanova ways to Max Gipple.

In testimony whereof, we hereunto set our hand and seal and declare this to be our last Will and Testament, this seventeenth day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and forty-nine.

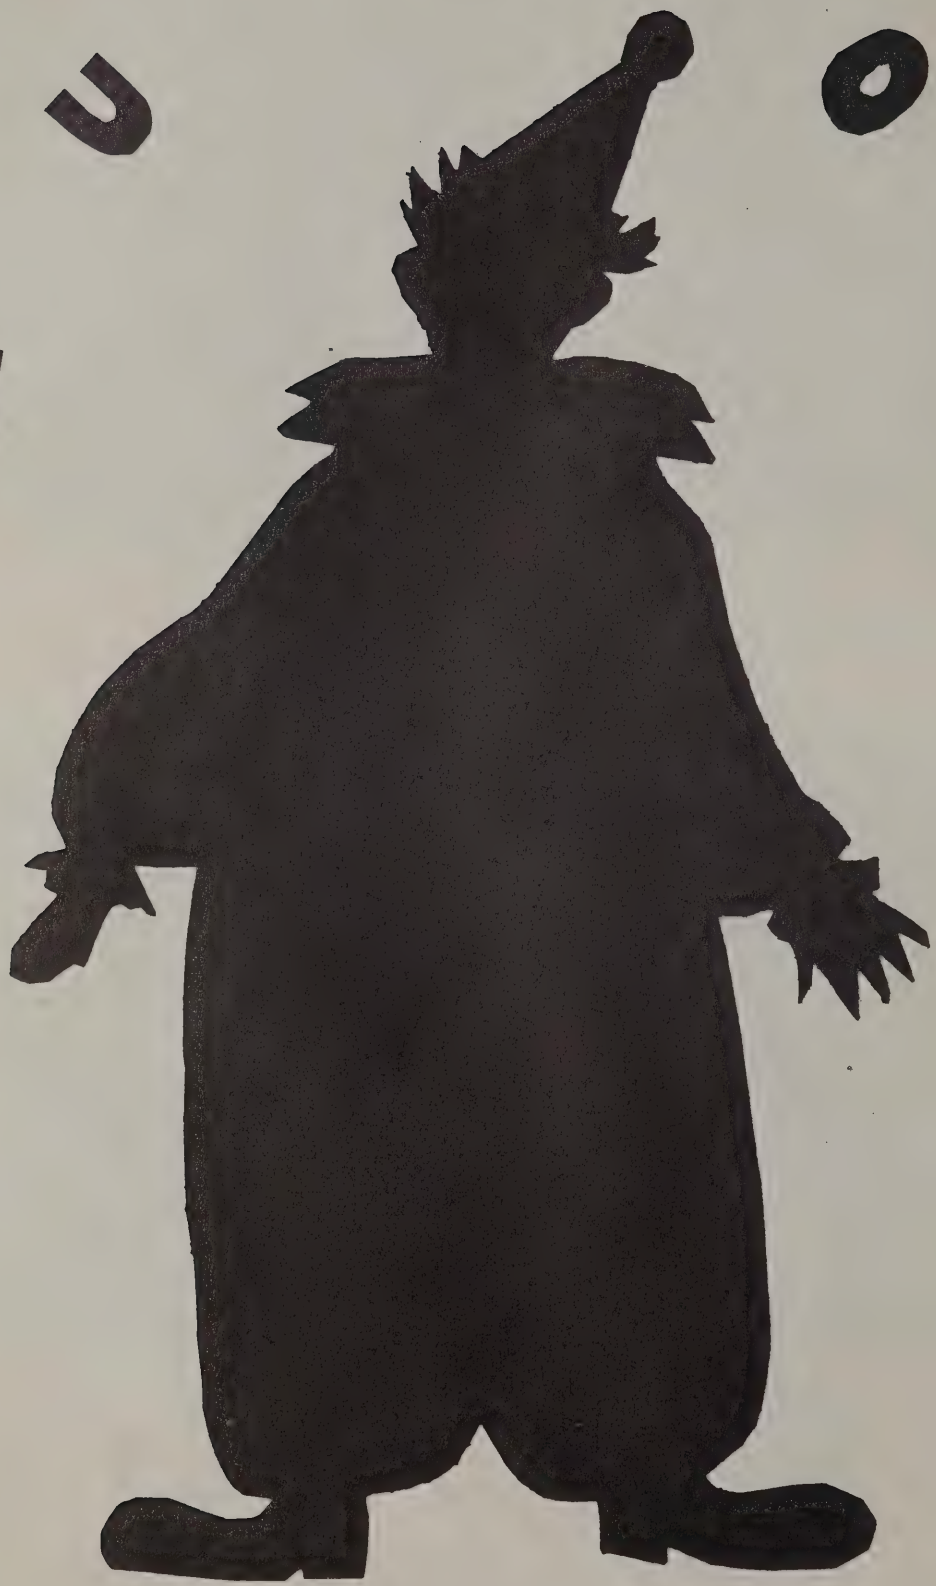
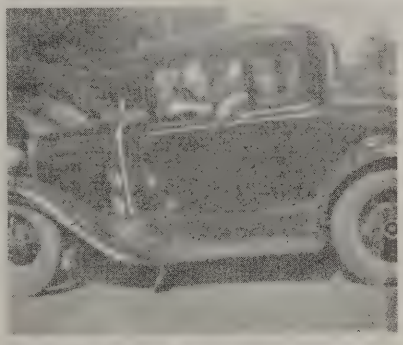
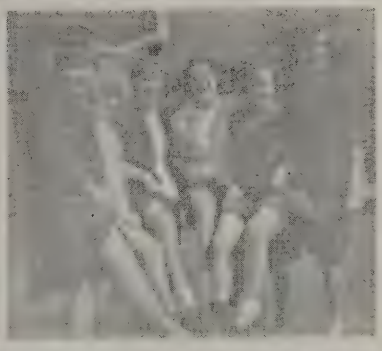
HUMOR







Says Paul Conrad: "Probably the reason so many people never learn the true value of money is that they never get enough research material."

* * *

Dick Harmes, Herman Lehman and Dick's dog were killing a little time playing cards. Corky Conrad stood and watched the game with growing amazement for quite some time. Finally he remarked "Why I never saw a dog play cards before!"

"Oh, he's really not so good," replied Dick, "he wags his tail every time he gets a good hand."

* * *

Without mentioning any names, a Senior guy was out with a Junior girl and they were having a pretty dull time. Finally she turned to him and said in disgust, "I wish I'd known you when you were alive."

* * *

Two morons were standing in front of Wilhelm's restaurant recently gabbing away. Neither could tell time and both were wise to each other. Finally the first asked the second, "What time is it by your watch?"

The second one pulled out his watch and said, "There she is."

"Darned if she ain't," admitted the stymied one.

* * *

Did you hear about the fellow on the football team who was a drawback?

* * *

John Wilhelm relates this tale about his trip to Chicago. He stayed on the third floor of a hotel. There were about three other groups on that floor among which was a prominent businessman and his wife. On the floor directly above the apartment of the businessman and his wife lived a rather rowdy couple who irritated the businessman beyond words.

One night the faucet to the bath in the apartment above was left running and soon flooded the downstairs.

Amid a wild burst of profanity, the businessman demanded that the erring ones shut off the water. The young fellow shouted back "Stop your cursing, I've got a lady up here."

To which he got the snappy reply, "What do ya' think I've got down here, a duck."

* * *

Billie Stonebraker rode over to see Tommy Harmes the other day. He found Tommy trying desperately to get his pony into the house via the back door. Billie didn't know what to think, but he decided to play along with Tommy and help him. They finally succeeded in getting the horse into the kitchen and from there into the bathroom.

After that curiosity got the best of Billie and he asked Tommy what he was doing that for.

"Well, replied Tommy, "Whenever I try to tell Dick something, he always says 'Yeah, I know--I know.' So, tonight, when he comes in from doing the chores and goes in the bathroom to wash, he'll see the pony in the bathroom and come out and say 'Tom, there's a pony in the bathroom'."

"Then I'll say, Yeah, I know--I know."

Mr. Fee was lecturing his biology class. "I propose to show you," he said, "a specimen of a dissected frog, which I have in this parcel."

He untied the parcel and disclosed an egg and some sandwiches.

He scratched his head. "That's funny. I thought I ate my lunch," he said.

Berdena (to mother): "What is the best way to protect my wedding ring?"
Mother: "Dip it into dishwater three times a day."

* * *

Doctor: "That check you gave me has come back."
Dean Brenneman: "What a coincidence. So has my pain."

* * *

Miss Gfellers had written 92.7 on the blackboard, and, to show the effect of multiplying by 10, had rubbed out the decimal point.

"Now, Dale Altimus," she said, "where is the decimal point?"

"On the eraser," replied Dale.

* * *

John Wilhelm: "Waitress I don't like all these flies in here!"
Marcella Hamman: "Very well, sir, show me the ones you don't like, and I'll see that they are chased out."

* * *

Miss Taylor: "Robert Burns wrote 'To a Mouse.' "
Walter Clyburn: "And what was the answer?"

* * *

Mr. Frederick: "Late again'. What's the excuse this time?"
Johnny Miller: "Well, sir, last night my mother turned the mirror on the mantelpiece around to face the wall. When I came downstairs this morning, I couldn't see myself in the looking glass, so naturally I thought I had gone to school."

* * *

Mr. Libey: "Does that scarecrow really do any good?"
Dean Stoy: "Does it do any good! Why, it scared the crows so bad that they brought back all the corn they stole last year!"

* * *

Mrs. Fee: "You should be kind to insects."
Bertha Voges: "I am. I never pass up a chance to pat a mosquito on the back."

* * *

Mr. Fee (in Physics): "When water becomes ice, what is the greatest change that takes place?"
Larry Stomm: "The price, sir."

* * *

Mr. Cook (in arithmetic): "If there were twelve sheep in a field and four jumped over a fence, how many would be left?"
Jerry Parnell: "None."
Mr. Cook: "Come, you know better than that!"
Jerry: "No, that's right. You may know arithmetic, but you don't know sheep."

F.F.A.

The Future Farmers of America have begun to get back to prewar activities. Here are some of the things that the FFA has done this year:

1. We went to Chicago to the International Livestock Show.
2. We sold subscriptions to magazines.
3. We played several basketball games.
4. We have a new Coke machine.
5. We sell chocolate milk at noon hours.
6. We are selling seeds from the Vitality Seed Company.

GLEE CLUB

Our Glee Club, make up of forty girls is a group in our school of whom we are proud. We chose Clarice Whysong for our accompanist.

After we met and got organized we started work on a Contata for the Christmas Festival. We are now preparing for the Spring Festival. Mrs. Soudah tries to balance our selections between sacred and secular songs--music that lasts and music for fun.

For the Spring concert we have five numbers ranging from the "Agnus Dei" to "Silvery Moon." We will also be represented at the Baccalaureate and Commencement.

Band

The Band's first thrill this year was receiving uniforms as they were about to "take off" at the fair, thanks to our loyal Band Parents Association who have also presented us with a Sousaphone. Our big day at the County Fair was an innovation too. How grand we were marching in Royal and Crimson--resplendent even to twirlers and flag bearers! Other engagements for the band were:

Halloween parade--Hudson
Halloween parade--Ashley
Christmas Festival Music
Basketball games
Spring Festival
Commencement

Our sixty members are ready now to fill a contract with the Chamber of Commerce to play each Saturday night during the summer.

Band Personnel:

JUNIOR PLAY CAST

FIRST ROW: Alice Mortorff, Nelda Deetz, Helen Stults, Mrs. Arney-Director, Janice Frederick, Phyllis Harmes, Phyllis Bohler.

SECOND ROW: Gilbert Smith, Lavon Bender, Dean Brennemen, Walter Clyburn, Bob Weirich, Earl Altimus.

A three act farce-comedy, "Health, Wealth and Romance" was presented by the Junior Class on December 8, 1948, starring Bob Weirich as the young business man who knew the answer to a quiz contest, Walter Clyburn who was his successful friend, Janice Frederick who played his girl friend, Phyllis Harmes who was Janice's friend and long lost girl friend of Walter, then the two old spinster aunts of Janice's, Alice Jane Mortorff and Nelda Deetz. A health resort was the scene of all this action and was owned by La Von Bender, an ex-prizefighter and Helen Stults, the maid. Always lurking around was Earl Altimus the house boy, along with him was Dean Brennemen, Walt's valet. As always the two criminals, Phyllis Bohler and Gilbert Smith appeared on the scene to complicate affairs. The play was directed by Mrs. Dolly Arney.
